Agures following, to wit:

Articles of a treaty made and concluded at Fort Sully, in the Territory of Dakota, by and between Newton Edmunds, Governor and ex-officio Superintendent of Indian Affairs of Dakota Territory, Edward B. Taylor, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the northern superintendency, Major General R. R. Curtis, Brigadier General H. H. Sibley, Henry W. Reed, and Orrin Guerneey, commissioners on the nart of the Henry Guerneey, commissioners on the part of the United States, duly appointed by the President, and the undersigned chiefs and headmen of the Two Kettles band of Dahendmen of the Two Kettles band of Da-kota or Sioux Indians.

Aurrica Finst. The Two Kettles band of Dakota or Sioux Indians, represented in council, hereby acknowledge themselves to be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction and authority of the United States, and hereby obligate and bind themselves, individually and collectively, not only to cease all hestil-ties against the persons and property of its citizens, but to use their induence, and, if necessary, physical force, to prevent other bands of the Dakota or Sioux, or other ad-jacent tribes, from making hostile demon-strations against the Government of the Uni-ted States or its people.

strations against the Government of the Uni-ted States or its people.

ARTICLE SECOND. Inasmuch as the Gov-ernment of the United States is desirous to arrest the effusion of blood between the In-dian tribes within its jurisdiction hitherto at war with each other, the Two Kettles band of Dakota or Sioux, represented in council, anxious to respect the wishes of the Govern-ment, hereby agree and bind themselves to discontinue for the future all stacks upor the marging or property of other tribes, un ions nat assaired by them, and to use that influence to promote peace everywhere is the region occupied or frequented by them. ARTICLE TRIBD. All controversies or differences arising between the Two Kettle band of Dakota or Sloux, represented it council, and other tribes of Indians, involved.

Anvicta Fourar. The said band represented in council shall withdraw from the futes overland aircady established, or herester to be established through their country; and in consideration thereof, and of their non-interference with the persons and property of citizens of the United States traveling thereon, the Government of the United States agree to pay to the said band the sum of six thousand dollars annually, for twenty years, in such articles as the Secretary of the Interior may direct: Provided, That said band or represented in council shall faithfully conform to the requirements of this treaty.

Anvicta Fifts. Should any individual or individuals, or portion of the band of the Two Kettles band of Dakota or Sioux Indians represented in council, desire hereafter to locate permanently upon any part of the land claimed by the said band, for the purpose of agricultural or other pursuits, it is hereby agreed by the parties to this treaty that such individual or individuals shall be protected in such location against any anneyance or molestation on the part of whitee or Indians; and where twenty lodges or families of the Two Kettles band shall have located on lands for agricultural purposes, and signified the same to their agent or superintendent, they, as well as other families so locating, shall receive the sum of twenty-five dollars, annually, for five years, for each family, in agricultural implements and improvements, and when one hundred lodges or families shall have so engaged in agricultural pursuits, they shall be entitled to a farmer and blacksmith, at the expense of the Government; also teachers, at the option of the Secretary of the Interior, when deemed necessary.

Auvictus Sixvii. Soldiers in the United States service having killed Ish-tah-chah-heahs, (Puffing Eyes,) a friendly chief of the ex service having killed Ich-tah-chab-ne-, (Puffing Eyes,) a friendly chief of the Kettles band of the Dakota or Sioux Inwe kettles hand of the Dakota or Sioux In-ians, it is hereby agreed that the Govern-sent of the United States shall cause to be aid to the surviving widow of the deceased and his children seventeen in number, the um of five hundred dollars; and to the said sum of five hundred dollars; and to the said tribe or band, in common, as indemnity for killing said chief, the sum of five hundred dollars, said payment to be made under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior. Anticle Saventa. Any amendment or mod-ification of this treaty by the Senate of the United States shall be considered final and binding upon the said band, represented in council, as nearly of this treaty in the same council, as a part of this treaty, in the same manner as if it had been subsequently pre-sented and agreed to by the chiefs and head-men of said band.

In testimony whereof, the commissioners on the part of the United States, and the chiefs and headmen of the said Two Kettles chiefs and neadmen of the said two sections band of Dakota or Sioux, have hereunto set their hands, this nineteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, after the contents had previously been read, interpreted, and explained to the said chiefs

HOW HE SUCCEEDED BY THE RANG OF GAR RALL. There is a doctor in our town, A man of practice and renown; He makes a handsome income clear, But still be'd try his best to do, And make a name and money too.

He attended lectures, studied hard, Each day he sat, with saddened face For poverty came on apace; At last a friend gave him advice Which changed his furture in a trice. Now patients florked from far and near No doctor can with him compare The secret of his great apcess,
I'll tell you if you cannot guess;
The same advice will help you all,
